Public Comment Period –

Josh Matthews, Coach of the Sandlot Sisters, spoke to the Board regarding park and field usage fees at Lila Swaim Park that were set as of July 1, 2025, with the Town's FY 25-26 Budget Ordinance. J. Matthews uses the upper ballfield at Lila Swaim Park for practice with his travel softball league, which consists of children from surrounding areas, as well as Jonesville. It was brought before the Board's attention that there was a mutual understanding with the previous Town Manager that, in exchange for the Town of Jonesville's new branding on Team uniforms, use of fields for practice would be free of charge. J. Matthews expressed the amount of interest he receives during travel tournaments in the "JNC" logo and "what it represents." While it was not put into writing, J. Matthews asked the Board to consider and honor the original agreement between himself and the previous Town Manager. The Board agreed to discuss the matter before reaching an agreement.

The current agreement for the usage of the fields at Lila Swaim Park, free of charge, is for youth sports teams within the Town of Jonesville.
