Public Comment Period –

- Mack Bowers – 255 N. Mineral Springs Dr, Jonesville, NC

- M. Bowers presented a signed petition from community members for the addition of a speed bump on North Mineral Springs Drive in Town near the three-way stop signed intersection.
- Megan Osowitt – 5514 Cedarbrook Rd, Jonesville, NC
 - M. Osowitt gave Council Members a copy of an informational packet that was compiled for an administrative appeal for a utility bill dispute regarding a bill she received for her property located on Cedarbrook Road in Town limits.

Presentation –

- Michael and Heather Tilley with Unique Transportations shared with other members of Council and the Public details from their kickoff event and charity ride that was held during Rally in the Valley. Thanks to their efforts, the charity ride and event were able to raise $2,020 for Jonesville Police Department's annual Operation Blue Christmas. The Tilley's were thankful to Town staff and Officers who helped participate and volunteer their time at both events. They expressed hope of being able to do a similar charity ride this fall for the same cause. Council Members and W. Thompson expressed their gratitude for Michael and Heather's commitment to their community.
- Town Manager W. Thompson presented Deputy Finance Officer T. Hall-Long with a Certificate of Completion that was received after the year-long course School for New Finance Officers at the UNC School of Government and commended T. Hall-Long on the dedication of her position to the Town.
- Jonesville Police Chief Scotty Vestal recognized Officer Matthew Scanniello and Officer Nelson Pope for their hard work. Both officers received a promotion in rank to Corporal and were presented with their official Insignia and new titles, Corporal Matthew Scanniello and Corporal Nelson Pope.

Business – Wendy Thompson, Town Manager, addressed the Council with the following business matters:

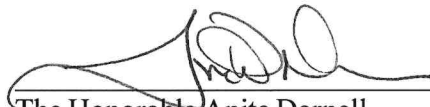

1. Resolution for NC DOT Easement and Right of Way Agreement
 - A motion to approve the Resolution for NC DOT Easement and Right of Way Agreement was made by Council Member S. Darnell, seconded by Council Member M. Tilley, approved by unanimous vote, 4-0.
2. NC Commerce has offered the Town funding under the CDBG-NR (Community Development Block Grant for Neighborhood Revitalization) for $1,000,000. The Scope of Work includes the development of multi-use court at Lila Swaim Park and supplies for two homes to be built by Habitat for Humanity within the Town limits.
 - A motion to approve CDBG-NR Funding Approval Document and Grant Agreement was made by Council Member M. Tilly, seconded by Council Member S. Darnell, approved by unanimous vote, 4-0.
 - A motion to approve Resolution for Signatory Form and Certification was made by Council Member M. Tilley, seconded by Council Member T. Wall, approved by unanimous vote, 4-0.
3. Special event permit at Lila Swaim Park for Karen Parson with The Gathering for September 19-20, 2026, was presented to Council that had been reviewed and approved by Chief Scotty Vestal.

- A motion to approve the Special Event Permit for Karen Parson with The Gathering was made by Council member S. Darnell, seconded by M. Tilley, approved by unanimous vote, 4-0.
- 4. Special event permit at Lila Swaim Park for Benny Maske with 11 Meter Outlaws Presenting the Shoot Out in the Tar-Hill State CB Radio Race on September 4-5, 2026. Chief Vestal reviewed the special event permit and found that it violates NC State laws and FCC regulations. Staff do not recommend approval of the event permit unless specific changes are made. Attorney Freeman recommends to Council to either deny the special event permit or submit a new application with changes.
 - A motion to approve a Special Event Permit for Benny Maske upon submission of an application removing the CB race or providing an FCC permit. Application to be reviewed and signed off by Town Manager and Chief Scotty Vestal, was made by Council Member R. Adkins, seconded by Council Member T. Wall, approved unanimously, 4-0.
